GREENLEAF

The 1985 Greenleaf Shreveport, Louisiana

Victoria Beard, Editor-In Chief

Primette Braden, Copy Editor

Time goes on endlessly. For seniors, student life at Green Oaks is ending, but the hard work and the fun will always be remembered. Standing, below are Monica Williams and Jacqueline Spearman. Seated are Shelia Mitchell, Crystal Marshall and Jacqueline Ellis who are all active in COE. In the left photo, Anna Washington, Dwight Dotie, Lloyd Giles, and Anthony Rainey plan menus in a food and nutrition class.

Every student should inevitably visit the library during his high school career. Doris Barfield takes time to pose for a photo before she begins her research.

"The Magnificent Four" can be found in many places, performing a variety of tasks, but in the picture

Super Seniors Play . . .

Some members of the football team show their versatility as they become cheerleaders for a day. Members of the squad are (l to r) "The Unseen," Davell Jackson, Jimmy Phillips, Carlos Thomas, Roderick Harris, Chris Morris, and John Alexander.

Dependable Mr. Harris prepares trophies, plaques and awards for Green Oaks' annual Awards Day. The Seniors hope to receive their fair share.

But They Study, Too!

Mr. Gipson and Carey Washington make final preparations for the publication of the school's football programs.

The juniors in the band let you know how much fun they are having, but they also let you know how boring it becomes once performing and playing stop.

Hard Work Yields

In the left photo, the junior class just would not live up to its name if it didn't have three stiffes, Willie Williams, James Jackson, and Alvin Griffin, stand against the wall and look like they are posing for mug shots. (Below) It's no use to act, if you can't do it right. For Aleshia Thompson and Angela Roberson, acting in speech and drama just isn't enough. They took it to the stage as they portray "Two Old Hags" on a talent show.

These juniors were honored for maintaining at least a B average. They are what you might call the "cream of the crop." It just goes to show that hard work has its own rewards.

Tunya Harper and Ben Brown can always be depended on to help out in emergencies. Ben concentrates on writing copy for the yearbook as Tunya comes in from running errands.

Many Rewards

Sophomores can be found engaged in numerous activities. An example is Mr. Carley's metals class. In the right photo, Demetrious Mitchell, David Jones, Ronald Carrol, William Kennedy, and Martin Randall wait for their teacher to give them their instructions for the hour. The sophomore class is led by all females who really get the job done. Class meetings are conducted orderly and expeditiously. The officers are: Corlisa Jones, President; Yolanda Williams, Vice President; Jennifer Thompson, Secretary; Shriya Morris, Assistant Secretary; and Shannon McCullough, Treasurer.

Sophomores Establish . . .

In the right photo, Martin Randall, Dexter Milton, Demetrious Mitchell, Reginald Walker, and Jessie Henderson work on their projects that will be displayed during the annual Industrial Arts Spring Exhibit.

... Dignity And Strive For Success

Rashima Mason gives her support and time as she sorts and stamps pictures for the yearbook staff.

Gregory Ragster, Letha Baker, David Newton, Monica Smith, Kim Jones, Tjwana White, LaVonda Roberson, Katrina Pipkins and Gwendolyn Terry get ready for a Y-Teen meeting.

Latonia Louis and Michelle Brooks perform various activities in home economics. One of them is food preparation where they learn menu planning and organization.

Freshmen Hold The Key To The Future . . .

It's Time For Something New

The ninth grade academic honorees are (Top photo, l to r) DeShundra Washington, Helen Boyd, Sharon Drew, Anjel Lewis, Yolanda Thomas, Wanda James, Kimberly Jones, Cassandra Young, Shelia Smith, Delores Howard, Primette Braden, Kim Jones, Tonya Roberson, and Damon Davis. (Left photo) Class elections will always be a part of student life. Mrs. Z. Thomas is one of the class sponsors along with Mrs. M. Thibodeaux and Ms. E. Holmes. In the photo above, Chandra Dotie gives a report in one of the ROTC classes as Sgt. Nobles evaluates her.

GO Students Are In The Mix

Top right: Election time offers a chance for Michelle, Janice, Jackie, Monica, and Debra to talk about the latest.

Reginald Musgrove, Marlon Player, Ellis Young, Jake Davenport, Roland Fowler, Jerry Savannah, Kenneth Gray, Vincent Davis and Carey Washington give student life a new meaning as they enjoy their lunch break (top left photo). In the bottom left photo, Primette Braden and Paulette Washington prove that student life is not just a time for fun. Hard work is just as important as having fun.

In the above photo, the induction ceremonies of the National Honor Society is a major event at Green Oaks. These students not only maintained a 3.3 grade point average, but they also represented the faculty and student body in many school and community activities. The officers are: Victoria Beard, President; Angela Hopkins, Vice-President; Veronica Allen, Secretary; and Felicia Clayton, Treasurer.

The Enchanted Court Couple

The lovely Miss Robin Chalmers is a member of various activities around the campus. Robin is an elegant lady.

Mr. Steven Hopkins, Mr. Green Oaks is a member of various organizations at the school. Steven is a gentleman.

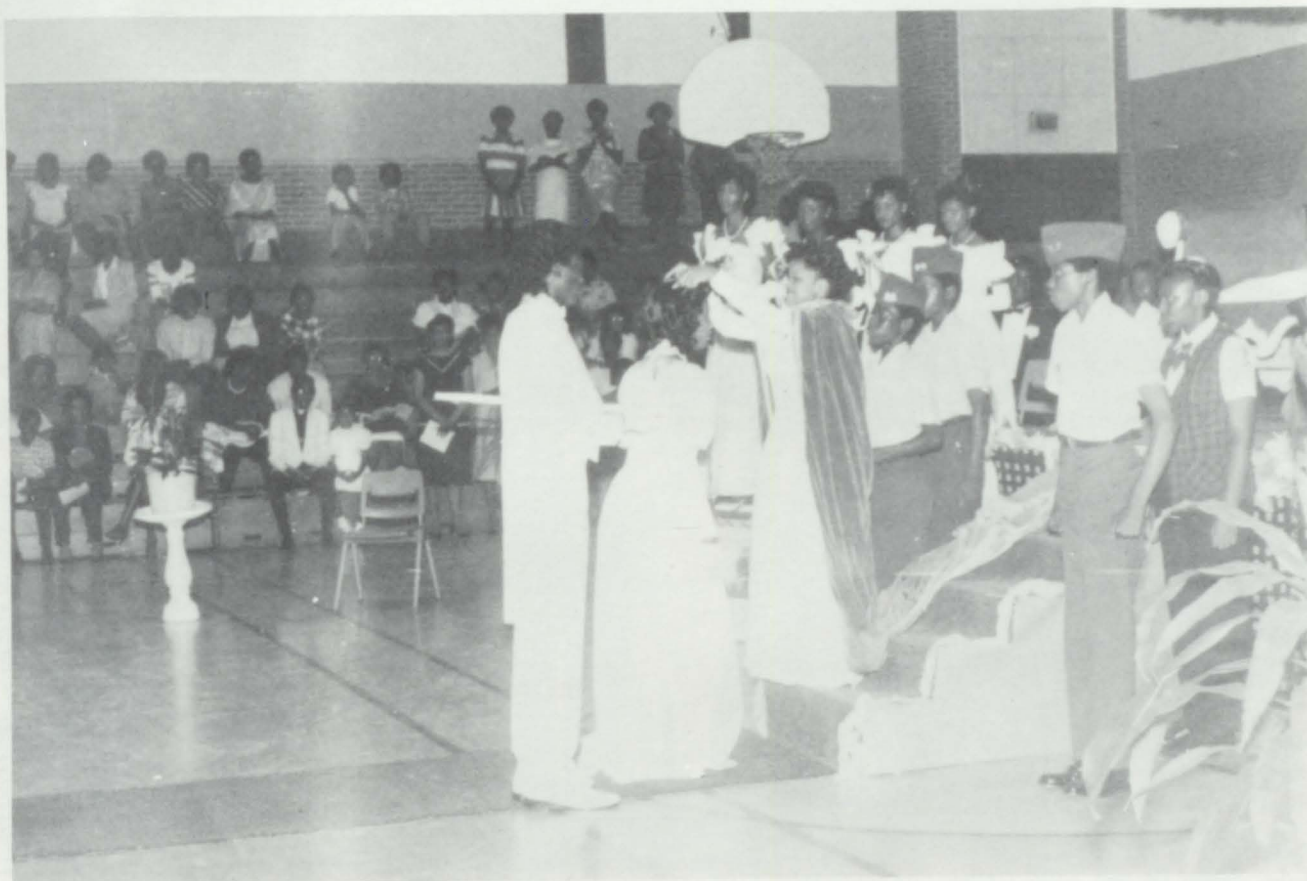

Steven and Robin are two of a kind. They look absolutely marvelous in their elaborate formal wear. This picture captures the typical elegance of the modern court, MR. AND MISS GREEN OAKS.

Steven escorts Robin to the throne, while Rhonda Smith, Miss Green Oaks 1983-1984, pulls and straightens out the train on the cape. The audience sits patiently and stares. Some even stand to recognize the elegant court couple. (To the right) Steven and Robin stand and pose for a moment after the coronation.

(Above) Robin kneels to Rhonda for the placement of the crown upon her head. The JROTC stands at attention at all times. Steven steadfastly stands and awaits the crowning.

CHANTENELL JONES, SENIOR MAID
Chantenell is a member of the ELITES, SAD Club, Orchestra, and FBLA.

EULANDA LEWIS, JUNIOR MAID
Eulanda is a member of the Marching and Concert bands, and active in many clubs.

Hopkins—Mr. Green Oaks, Tyrone Jones, Ronald Lee, Quintin Samuels, and Randy Smith.

A Night To Remember

TALICIA MOORE, JUNIOR MAID

Talicia is a member of the Student Council, Quiz Bowl, and SAD Club.

YOLANDA TAYLOR, FRESHMAN MAID

Yolanda is a member of the Student Council and an honor student.

For all of these young ladies, it was a night to remember. (l to r) Phyllis Pamplin, Lytonia Barfield, Pamela Phillips, Vernita Stewart, Robin Chalmers, Chantenell Jones, Eulanda Lewis, Talicia Moore, Yolanda Taylor. Beauty surrounds us all.

VERNITA STEWART, FOOTBALL SWEETHEART. Vernita, a senior, attends the Career Center. She plans a career in nursing.

LYTONYA BARFIELD, BAND SWEETHEART. Lytonya is a third year member of the band. She is a member of the Elites and winner of the Ebony Pageant.

Miranda Jones and David Jones, sister and brother members of the dance troupe perform for the "Royal Couple" during the Coronation program. Miranda and David have performed together on many of the school programs and talent shows. Since David is a senior, their together acts will be limited.

The Glamours Of Coronation

PAMELA PHILLIPS, ROTC SWEETHEART

Pamela is a high ranking officer in ROTC; this is why she was chosen as ROTC Sweetheart.

PHYLLIS PAMPLIN, PEP SQUAD SWEETHEART

Phyllis, a senior, is the captain of the pep squad, and she is well known throughout the school for her involvement in school activities.

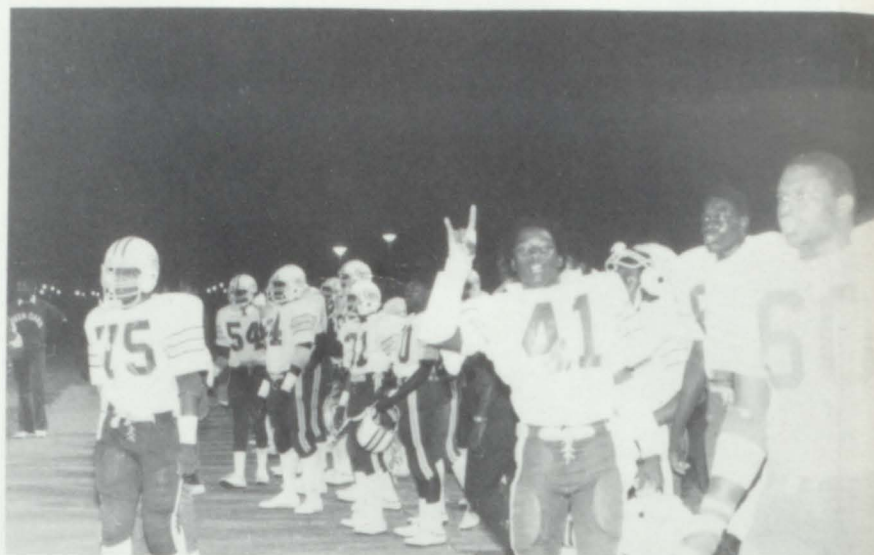

On the sidelines, waiting for the program to begin are Daniel Jones, football captain and 1983 Miss Green Oaks, Rhonda

Smith, who poses with a beautiful bright smile. Levi Kelly and others in the background are waiting anxiously.

A Victory For Sure

Jethro Savannah shows the "V" sign as Green Oaks scores on Parkway in the homecoming game.

Referee Stops The Clock

Shown is typical of the action whenever the Green Oaks defensive team takes the field. A scramble ensues for a fumble recovery as Parkway loses yards.

Smiles On Winning Faces

Darrell Harris, Robert Smith and Roy Gipson show approving smiles as Green Oaks advances down the field to another homecoming victory.

King And Queen At Halftime

As they march on the field,
In the mist of the night,
Mr. & Miss Green Oaks
are out of sight.
She smiles with glamour;
He smiles with charm,
Marching down the field arm to arm.

Band At Halftime

Marching, moving,
skipping to the beat,
Watching the Green Oaks
band move their feet.
They cruise to the left;
They hop to the right.
Showing bright smiles
'cause they know they're
DYNAMITE.
"The number one band
in the land"

A Day Of Excitement

Enjoyig a few hours
before the game,
Our football boys
go insane.
They pose as cheerleaders
in a pyramid,
Making them the worse
we ever had.
Wearing their make-up
and ribbons, too
Showing what they can do.

Joy In Giant Land

Joy and jubilation abound on the campus when Homecoming Season is in swing. A group of juniors show that they are pleased with the activity of the day.

This Is How We Do It

The Cheerleaders go through a routine during a homecoming pep rally in the square.

Who Put The Pep In Squad?

Cheering for the team at the homecoming game is the Pep Squad. The Club consists of girls from all classes. They are a welcome sight every game during football season.

SENIORS

Senior Class Favorites

Sticking with the style are our best dressed, Chantenelle Jones and Steven Hopkins.

Living the glamorous life are our Mr. and Miss Green Oaks, Steven Hopkins and Robin Chalmers.

Keeping in shape with the best figures are our best figured Carolyn Scott and Jesse Stinson.

Our star athletes are Robin Chalmers and Delaware Kelly.

Senior Class Favorites

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Althea Bagley
Carl Haynes

MOST ACADEMIC

Juanita Fradieu
Stephen Hardman

President; Charlette Edwards, Secretary; Jimmy Phillips, Treasurer; and Patrick Sanders, Chaplain.

Senior Class Favorites

The flirtiest flirts of them all are Brenda Arkansas and Carlos Thomas.

The models of the year are Nichole Mitchell, our cutest girl, and Steven Hopkins, our most handsome boy.

Let's go crazy with Paula Lewis and Gerald Combs, our best dancers.

These two seniors are known throughout the school; Brenda Arkansas and Delaware Kelly are the most popular.

Angela, Tracey, and Shelia strike a playful pose in the squares.

Freshman Sherri Ford joins seniors Gwendolyn Knight, Vernita Stewart, Felita Carey and Shelia Carson—some examples of the spirited beauties around the Green Oaks campus.

Korin Kinchen participated in the first talent show of the 84-85 school year break dancing to a popular tune.

During the homecoming festivities, the Spanish I class staged a backward wedding to amuse the student body. The members of

Seniors Are Positive Images Around Campus

Positive images are the seniors on campus. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors look up to them. They are the cream of the

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Tom James, Principal of Green Oaks High School, arrives at work in time to inspect the school plant before the faculty and students arrive for a day of work and study.

Mr. James puts forth effort to raise academic standards and to build school spirit and pride. Signing papers, writing letters, completing forms and writing teacher evaluations are all a part of his day at Green Oaks.

Mr. James obtained his B.A. from Southern University and his M.A. from Prairie View A&M University.

Principal Mr. Tom James

GREENLEAF Editor, Victoria Beard and Student Council President, Tunya Harper discuss the activity schedule with Mr. James. One of his major responsibilities is to assist in the smooth operation of the many activities the student body is involved in.

Assistant Principals Make Use Of Time

Mr. John Baldwin, Assistant Principal of Instruction, shows Mrs. Thibodeaux a passage in the book he has just read. "Maybe the idea in the book can be used in her classroom."

Mr. Hunt, Assistant Principal of Administration, talks with Herbert Edwards a ninth grade student, about a new policy just issued by the School Board.

Mr. Hunt and Mr. Baldwin take time to talk with Mr. Willie Critton, Parish Supervisor. Mr. Critton visits the school and has conferences with parents of students who have absentee problems.

Junior-Sophomore Counselor, Mrs. Bobbie Kendricks; Senior Counselor, Mr. Nathaniel Harvey; and Freshman Counselor, Mrs. Pearl White take time for a break from their usual problem solving sessions with students to discuss plans for National Career Guidance Week. During the week they will provide additional career guidance information to the students.

The counselors spend a great deal of time counseling students as they plan for the future. They help with admission forms for college and vocational school as well as the military. Some choose the work world after high school and the counselors help there too. Above, Mr. Harvey and Phyllis examine her transcript as he points out how her grades and credits are averaged for graduation.

Mrs. White makes a call seeking assistance from one of the many referral agencies available for the students.

Denise Williams gets some advice on the courses she must enroll in for next semester from Mrs. Kendricks.

Our Problem Solvers

Time For Efficiency

The efficiency experts in the school are the secretaries. Mrs. Kathryn Loe takes care of the daily bulletins. Mrs. Joicy Wilson is the registrar and Mrs. Maxie Jones, Attendance clerk.

GO Library— A Resource Center

The Green Oaks Library provides the students and faculty with a variety of resources. Classes enjoy the use of instructional television, films, and other sources made useful through technology. Magazines and books help with various projects.

Research paper time is always a busy season. Study carrels make it possible for students to get away from the crowd. Student workers offer valuable assistance.

"A Teacher Affects Eternity"

Teachers Will Be Teachers . . .
 Because they are one of a kind;
 They are never misgiving and
 They stay on your mind.
 Work, work, work, all the time;
 Don't play with them for they
 Will bother your mind . . .
 Teachers—Will—Be—Teachers.
 That's why whenever you read,
 You should comprehend,
 And the teacher will tell you,
 It will benefit you in the end.

ORGANIZATIONS

The 4-H Club presented its Thanksgiving demonstration with its featured speaker, Julia Beeson, Caddo 4-H Agent, Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service.

4-H Says, "There's Time For All Things"

The 4-H Club has time to adventure forward in all events. They are appreciated by those whom they have helped in time of sorrow and perplexity. This year, the 4-H Club has helped many people by doing different things, such as traveling to the David Raines Nursery, and sending can goods and clothing to needy families. Officers are: (seated l to r) Telicia Moore, Corlisa Jones, John Alexander—president, Phyllis Pamplin, Kimberly Mims, (standing l to r) Shadonna Jones, Jenice Harris, Angela Blow, LaShundra Bradley, Donna Austin, Eric Collier, Eddie Williams; In the bottom picture, members are: (seated l to r) sponsor—Mrs. Thibodeaux, Patrick Sanders, sponsor—Ms. Holmes; (middle l to r) Willie White, Elana Thomas, Byron Caples, Sonya Tigie, Gwen Terry, and Patrick Turner.

The Business Department at Green Oaks offers students a general knowledge of the business field. Under the skilled and capable staff, the students learn skills for everyday use as well as skills for employment.

Students in cooperative education are introduced to the basics necessary for a career in the business office setting. As members of the Future Business Leaders of America, they are also given opportunities to develop leadership and social skills.

Mrs. Charlotte Cadman, Mrs. Doris McMillan, and Mrs. Dinah Tinsley are the business education teachers.

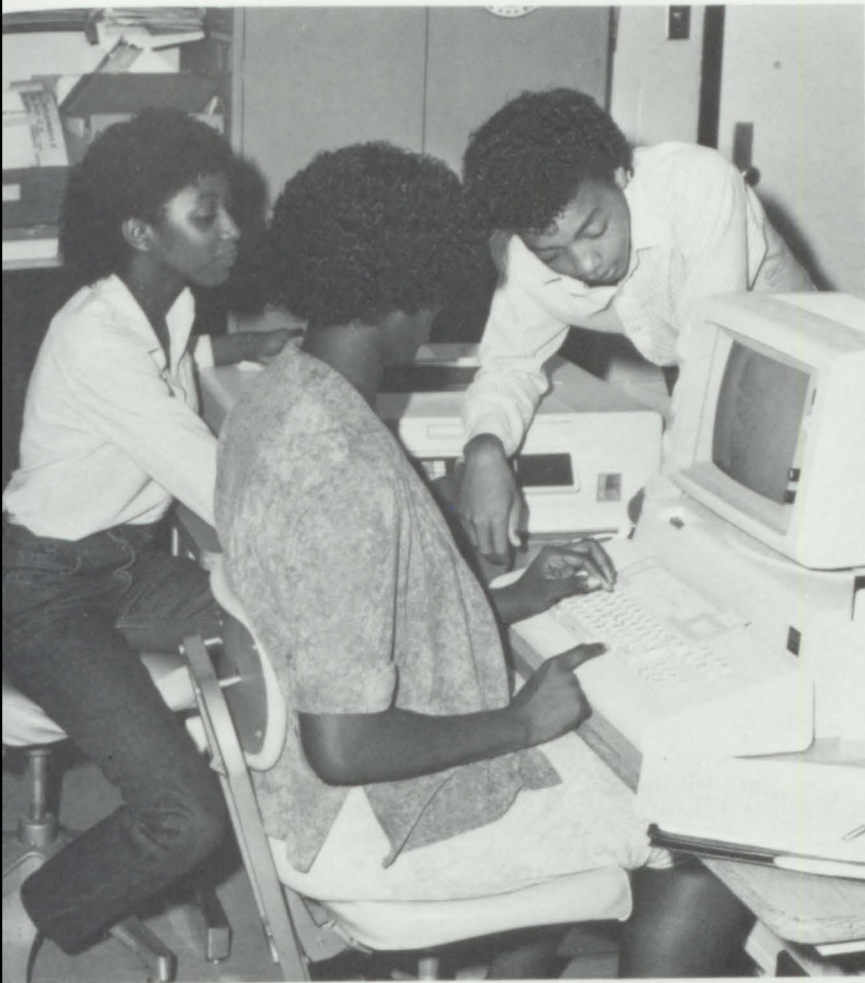

Gabriel Harvey demonstrates a new program on the computer to Steven Hardman and Annette Collins.

Lisa Tyler shows Victoria Beard and Chantenell Jones a new technique she has mastered on the typewriter.

Developing accuracy and proficiency in typing is one of the aims of the business department.

Many of the students enrolled in the department are employed in the various businesses throughout the city. This employment allows the student to develop proper attitudes, saleable skills and learn the avenues that lead to permanent employment and lifetime careers. Left, Mrs. Cadman explains a point to Angela Hopkins and Phyllis Boykins.

Distributive Education Club Of America

The members of the Green Oaks DECA Club work in various businesses in the Shreveport area. Students attend classes part of the day and then receive on-the-job training by working in the afternoon or evening. Members thus get the opportunity to apply merchandising techniques learned in the classroom to actual job situations. Mr. James Conerly is the DECA advisor for Green Oaks. DECA Officers are (standing) Percy Davis, Vickie Smith, Sharon Draper, Eddie Williams, Phyllis Pamplin, Martha Mays, Kimberly Mims, (kneeling) Patrick Sanders, Gregory Ragster, John Alexander, and Richard Taylor. The 1984 DECA members are pictured below with their sponsor.

The Future Homemakers of America and the Home Economic Related Occupations Class combine their efforts into what is known around Green Oaks as the FHA/HERO Club. Combining sewing, cooking, nutrition, and social development, these young people prepare for adulthood. Officers are: Milton Miller, Cheryl Lilly, Randy Smith, Ms. Rosetta Boone—Sponsor, Patrice Johnson, Sandra Green, and Rhonda Robinson. Russell Henderson, of SRAC, gives a demonstration to the class.

FHA/HERO Members are (back row) Carolyn Myers, Romana Henderson, Sonya Washington, LaTasha Spearman, Cynthia Sylvie, Barbara Cooper, Jackie Collins, Gwen Knight, Sandra Green, Lawan Jackson, Donna Lindsay, LaShun Mason, Rhonda Robinson, (middle row) Mrs. Alice Leake, Shelia

Murray, Sharon Miller, Cheryl Lilly, P. Johnson, L. Taylor, R. Jones, P. Dotie, S. Miller, Ms. Boone, (kneeling) M. Jackson, S. Grundy, D. Fitzpatrick, J. Savannah, K. Kinchen, R. Jackson, and B. Brown.

Who's Who At Green Oaks

The students selected for Who's Who are chosen on the basis of membership in clubs, offices held, grade point average, recommendations by teachers, high school accomplishments and general discipline and decorum.

Close Up Participants

Each year a group of students venture to Washington, D.C. to get a bird's eye view of the American Political process.

Quiz Bowl '85

Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta is a club whose main purpose is to stimulate interest in mathematics by providing public recognition of superior mathematical scholarship, and by promoting various mathematical activities.

Key Club

The Key Club at Green Oaks was chartered in March 1973. Since then many outstanding projects undertaken by the club have proven beneficial to the school and community. Under the capable leadership of President Randy Smith and Hayes Gipson, Sponsor, the young men have planned a major Clean Community Campaign and a Teacher of the Month project. Members are (standing l to r) Hayes Gipson, sponsor, Steven Hopkins, Ben Brown, Travis Otis, Steve Grundy, Eric Collier, (kneeling l to r) Randy Smith, Tony Wilson, Ellis Young, Korin Kinchen, Quintin Samuel and Herman Collins.

Go Express On The Go

Elegance Personified

The ELITES (Elegant Ladies In Today's Educational Society) sponsor many activities to foster responsibility, encourage scholarship and add a bit of dignity for the young ladies on campus. Pictured: Tunya Harper, Veronica Allen, Gabriel Harvey, Vice-President, Mrs. B. J. Bennett, Sponsor; Juanita Fradieu, Assistant Secretary, Felicia Clayton, Secretary, Latonya Barfield, Treasurer, and Angela Hopkins, President.

Elites Have Busy Year

The Elites are shown during one of their meetings. During the year the Elites handed out Christmas stockings and held their Annual Calendar Girl Pageant. Another project the Elites plan to undertake is a tutorial program for the area elementary schools. Their spring Carnival is something the youth of the community always look forward to attending.

Plan, Then Plan Some More

Mrs. Bennett, Elite Advisor, explains to the group that their success is due to the fact that they plan each event to meet the needs of the school, community and the group. Latonya Barfield, Jeanette Lee, April Bendaw and Lisa Tyler listen intently as she speaks.

Elites—A Service Club

Elites Work Together

Working together is the real reason the Elites perform so many outstanding services. Senior members of the Elites are Chantanell Jones, Brenda Arkansas, Jeanette Lee, Angela Hopkins, Carol Smith, Althea Bagley, Carolyn Scott, Juanita Fradieu, and Jacqueline Spearman.

The Egalitarians

The Egalitarians is a group of young men organized to promote school spirit, scholarship and qualities of finer manhood. Under the sponsorship of Leroy Wesley, these young men put into practice the principles upon which the organization was founded. They assist a sister organization, THE ELITES, in several projects throughout the year.

Cover Girl 1985

Brenda Faye Arkansas won the coveted title of Miss Cover Girl during the second annual Calendar Girl pageant. Brenda has been active in such organizations as the Elites, Drama Club and Who's Who Among Students. She was head cheerleader.

Orchestra—A Talent In Time

Mr. Lorenza Williams directs the orchestra as it performs at many of the school programs and activities in the community. He shares his teaching time between Green Oaks and Linear Junior High School. Sometimes the students from both schools combine their efforts in performances.

Choir—Music To My Ears

Under the capable dictatorship of Mr. Albert Jackson, the choir makes many performances throughout the year. Officers of the choir are in the top photo.

The 1984-1985 Marching Giants

The band steps lively to the beat during a pep rally. Under the direction of Mr. Jackson, the band gave outstanding half time and pre game shows during the football season. Parades and festivals are also big on their schedule. Members are from left to right: (R1) Carter, Washington, Lewis, Gullatt, Smith, Rascoe, Nelson, Myers, Miller, Combs, Jackson, (R2) Hardy, Beard, Bennett, Dotie, Spearman, Savannah, Campbell, Davis, Williams, (R3) Reliford, Jackson, Williams, Pipkins, Smith, Howard, Lewis, William, Bell, (R4) Young, Stinson, Whitaker, Miller, Jones, Boulton, Pipkins, Jones, Davenport, Sumlin, Pipkin, (R5) Wilkins, Frances, Beverly, Dyas, Clark, Dotie, Smith, Caples, (R6) Roberson, Black, Barfield, Collins, Drew, Lafite, Lewis, Oates, Thomas, (R7) Allen, Parker, Albert, Fields, (R9) Hopkins, Otis, Wilson, Drew, Tasby, Ester, Williams, Kelly, (R10) Terry, Smith, Marshall, Albert, Beverly, and Tigie.

GOHS's Band

Majorette Anna Washington during a half-time performance is really twirling to the sound of music.

Mr. Jackson, Director, poses with Drum Major Gregory Carter and Drum Majorette Paula Lewis.

Drummers Gerald Combs and Carlos Monroe show their skills as the band leaves the stands for a half-time show.

On the field or in the stands the band enjoys what they do best—execute intricate steps and play good music.

A significant part of the marching band performers are the majorettes and flag girls. During halftime, they add glamour, batons, and complete breathtaking maneuvers with the flags.

SPORTS

The ninth grade cheerleaders are elected early in the school year and serve in a training position for the Varsity squad. They participate in the pep rallies, help with painting signs for the games and perform at ninth grade football and basketball games. The experience these ninth graders get gives them a better chance of being elected varsity cheerleaders in the spring. Mrs. Barbara Bennett sponsors this group of girls.

Top: Jeanette Lee shows a bit of excitement when the team made a first down. Above: The whole gang poses for the photographer before the kick-off.

Top: The Freshmen Cheerleaders build a pyramid on an afternoon before a game. Members of the squad are Stephanie McCarter, Teresa Ruffins, Debbie Brazie, Yolanda Williams and Latunya Thomas. Mrs. Barbara Bennett is the advisor. Above: Cheerleaders in formation.

The Cheerleaders

The Cheerleaders learn new cheers, cheering techniques and pyramids while attending summer camp at Northwestern State University. At camp, they won the spirit stick and superior ratings.

The Cheerleaders put in many hard long hours during the school year practicing selling spirit tags and painting banners for the games. In addition they performed during pep rallies. Besides these responsibilities, the Cheerleaders sponsor a week long camp each June for elementary and middle school children.

The Road To Victory Is A Difficult One!

In the top photo, Jimmy Phillips—#21, John Alexander—#78, and Randy Anderson—#56 get a word of encouragement from Coach Wesley. In the left photo, even though the Giants lost to Huntington 20-13, the defense had the right touch as the opponents' quarterback was sacked. Above, casualties are suffered during the pressures of the game as Coach Wesley tapes Jesse Stinson's ankle while Roderick Harris looks on.

Wild Bunch Defense

The "Bad Street" defense set a city high school record with six shut outs. They held their opponents to a 5.4 scoring average. J. "Bodean" Savannah and John Alexander celebrate a key play as trainer, Jerry "J. T." Taylor watches the game.

GO's Explosive Offense

Willie Stevens, offensive line coach, created the "hogs" consisting of Daniel Jones, Carlos Thomas, Davell Jackson, Willie Williams, and Demetrious Mitchell.

James Mosley, offensive coordinator, provided the guidance necessary for offensive genius.

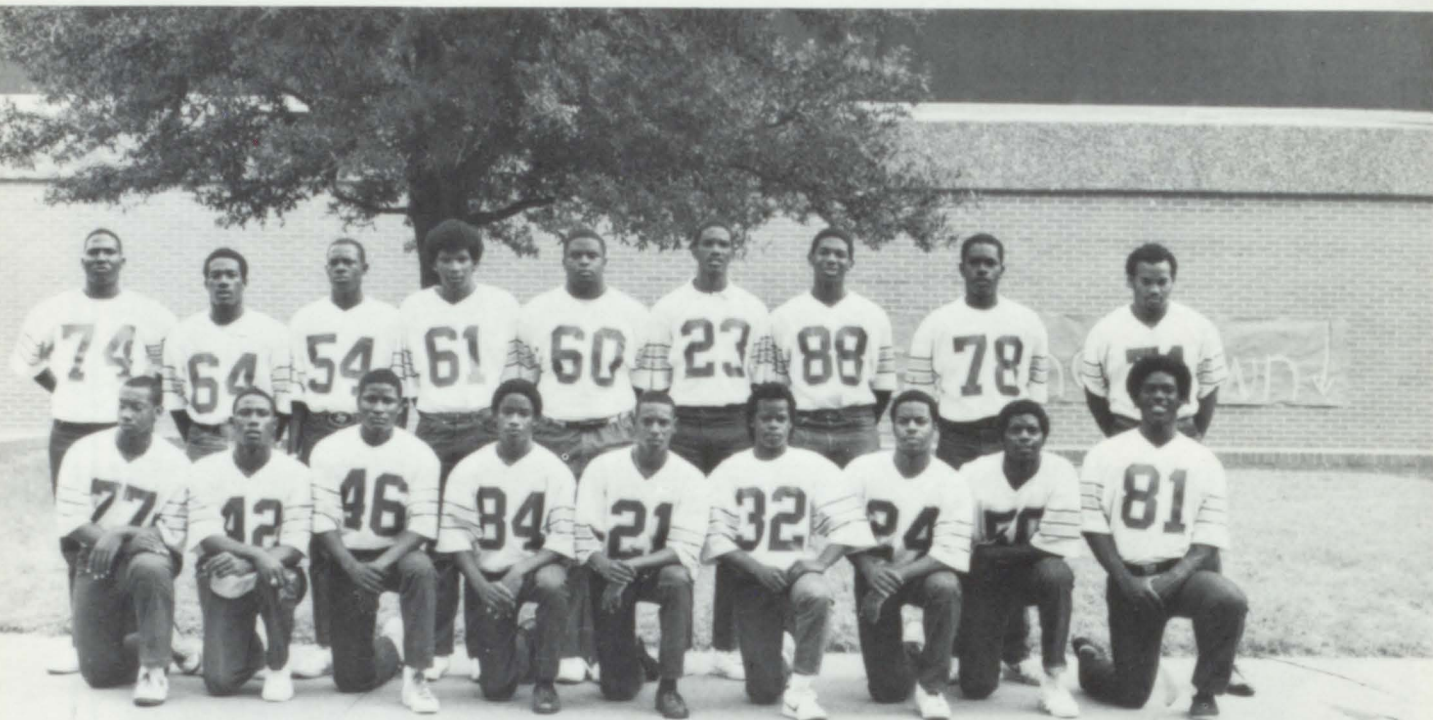

The high-powered offense performed outstanding explosions as their scoring eliminated many opponents. Few spectators will ever forget the outstanding performances of Chris Morris, Daniel Jones, Carlos Thomas and Davell Jackson. These and other players help to make the team, students and community proud.

The GIANTS prevailed as the crushing defense shut down the Captain Shreve Gators 20-0. Ricky Thomas #81 recovered a fumble that sparked the defense.

Giants Post A 9-1 Season And Are District Champions

The 1984 GIANTS surprised everybody. The team picked to finish last in district won the whole thing with a 5-0 district mark and 9-1 overall season—by far the best in the city.

There were many surprises this season, but the biggest had to be Ben Brown, the young man with no varsity experience, who played with the poise of a seasoned veteran. There were many outstanding individuals: All Staters Chris Morris and Daniel Jones, All District Ben Brown, Alvin Griffin, Delaware Kelly, Jessie Stinson, Mark Norwood, and John Alexander. Many players were responsible for a rewarding season.

Freshmen Show Spirit

(Top left) The plays continue as the freshman players gain valuable experience. (Top right) Coach McCurdy provides leadership to the team. (Center left) If feet could tell the story, these would say "We're ready for action!" (Center right—l to r) Willie, Greg, Edward, William, Artie, Kelvin, "Punchie," Calvin, Jimmy, Greg, Rod, Rashawn, and Matthew impatiently wait for their trip to Fair Park. Once the team is on the bus, (left photo) expectations of victory become evident.

Freshman Team Works For Victory

Rod Washington, Carl Brooks and James Taylor listen intently as Coach McCurdy gives last minute instructions. The team compiled an impressive 4-3 record for the year.

In the left photo, the members of the 1984-1985 Lady Giants Basketball Team are: (from top—left to right) Shannon McCullough, Lois Carter, Sandra Carter, Valerie Fullwood, Kim Washington, Shelia Smith, Alisa Adams, Gabriel Harvey, Catherine Robinson, Valerie Brooks, Robin Chalmers, and Felecia Mitchell. The team is coached by Willie Stevens. Below: "Oh my! What's going on?"

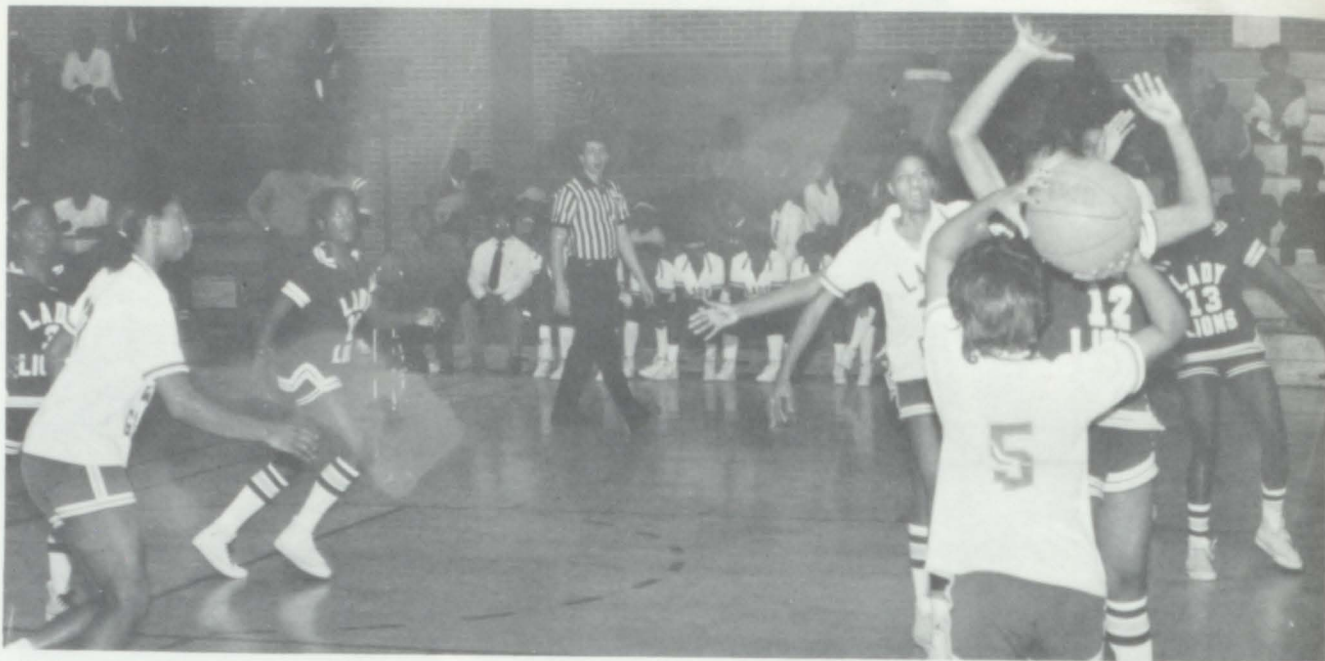

The Lady Giants had another victorious season which they earned by extremely hard work and a very determined coach. They finished with a 20-5 record.

Lois Carter Gets Ready For A Big Two

Robin Chalmers and Felicia Hall fight their way to get to the goal just in case Lois Carter misses. Her coaches and fellow players don't think she'll miss because they're sitting so calmly. Aren't they?

"I Know This Is A Sure Two For Our Team"

As the Lady Lions try to surround Lois Carter, she quickly fires a shot to give the Lady Giants two points. Catherine Robinson plays her part by rushing to the goal for the rebound just in case she misses.

Waiting For The Clock To Run Down

The Lady Giants sit happily as they wait for the buzzer to ring to end this game. They already know that they have it well in hand.

Even the fans sit back and enjoy this victory.

Enjoying A Fantastic Game

Former players and concerned fans seem to be getting their money's worth as they watch a great game. Each time they come to a Giant's game, not only will it be a game to remember, but also an enjoyment.

We Played With Pride

Above: Chris Morris tries to complete a three point play after being fouled while scoring a basket. Upper Right: The quick feet of the Giants' trapping defense provides severe pressure on the Gators. (Delaware Kelly, Milton Miller, Ellis Young) Top: Delaware Kelly shoots a very intense free throw.

Giant Basketball

Above: Milton Miller goes up for a rebound as Delaware Kelly, Ellis "6'9" Young and Alvin Griffin rush to the boards to assist him.

Lower left: Monroe Robinson #21 pulls cotton as he nets a jump shot. Chris Morris and Andre Nelson crash the boards for the rebound.

The Freshman Team Keeps Fighting

The freshman team made a very determined effort during the 1984-85 Basketball season. The team unfortunately met with agonizing defeat several times. Their four wins and eight losses were bravely fought. Coach McCurdy once again directed the team in hours of practice and hoped his players' shooting would lead them to success.

GOHS Tennis Team

Green Oaks tennis team works hard to become a state bound championship team. The team is small, but the dedicated members practice with zest and determination. The team shows a lot of perspective this year with many seasoned veterans. The coach, Mr. Lueburda Myers, takes the team through many afternoons of hard practice. The team consists of (Kneeling—l to r) Korin Kinchen, Angelette Armstrong, Ellis Young, (top row—l to r) Ben Brown, Byron Caples, A. C. Whitaker, and Sponsor—Mrs. Myers.

The players are: (Kneeling) Marcus Harris, Ben Brown, Dexter Milton, Korin Kinchen, Ellis Young, Cappy Sanders, Quinton

Samuels (Standing) Coach Gipson, Demetrious Mitchell, Vincent Jackson, Nathaniel James, Victor Owens, Darnell Green, A. C. Whitaker and Milton Miller.

Vincent Jackson catches as Quinton Samuels strikes the pose that shows his winning form.

Ellis Young is the promising young man who is destined to become a great catcher.

MVP Collins

Both the boys and girls were winners in track.

Cafeteria Staff Prepares Tasty Meals

The cafeteria is an attractive place that serves breakfast and lunch each day. Students have the option of purchasing a full lunch with dessert or sandwiches and salad. Mrs. Ledora Johnson is the manager and tends to the day by day operations of the

Maintaining The Grounds . . .

. . . and buildings is an awesome task for the maintenance staff at Green Oaks High School. They work continuously to keep things around the campus in immaculate condition. Standing l to r:

Do you need a reason to join the Louisiana National Guard?

Well, here are some very good incentives- -
FREE COLLEGE TUITION:

State law provides exemption from tuition payments in all state supported Colleges in Louisiana for all active members of the Louisiana National Guard. This exemption may be claimed for five (5) separate years or until receipt of a bachelors degree, whichever occurs first.

$1500 ENLISTMENT BONUS
OR
$4000 IN EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE

High school seniors and graduates who enlist in certain National Guard units may receive a $1500 enlistment bonus, or $4000 in educational assistance.

SPLIT TRAINING PROGRAM

Split training means that your Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training in the National Guard (which must be completed within a twelve (12) month time frame) can be staggered to fit your personal schedule.

For example, you can take Basic Training the summer of your junior year. Consider it a paid full-time summer job. During your senior year of high school, you will go to the monthly National Guard meetings. Consider it a paid part-time job. Then you can take your Advanced Individual Training the next summer, be paid for that too, and be home in time to attend college, business or vocational school in September. That's two summers of full-time employment, and two years of part-time employment.

Enjoying Biology

Felicia Bryant, Roland Fowler, Renise Hawthorne, Terry Smith, Victor Owens, and Paul Lewis enjoy learning about Chemistry in Ms. Hayes' class.

Getting Married

Yolanda Williams, Patrice Johnson, Felicia Clayton, and Carey Washington watch Aleshia Thompson and Milton Miller perform a mock wedding in one of the home economics classes.

Learning Process

Calvin Scott, Korin Kinchen and Daniel Jones are taking lessons about computers from one of the instructors.

Let's Play Hide And Seek

A representative from Shreveport Regional Arts Council gives a demonstration to a home economics class. James Kennedy and other class members are fascinated by his actions while Sharon and Lisa are distracted by the photographer.

An Attentive Audience

The audience listens attentively as councilman Hilary Huckaby spoke during the Daughters of the American Revolution Awards program.

I Know The Answer

Tunya Pipkins raises her hand hoping the answer is correct to the question Ms. Hayes has asked.
